

You are cordially invited to attend
The Inaugural Symposium on Current Developments in Caribbean Community Law

sponsored by

The Caribbean Law Institute Centre of the University of the West Indies in association with
The CARICOM Secretariat and the Caribbean Court of Justice

At the Hyatt Regency, Trinidad & Tobago
November 9-11, 2009

This high level symposium is a forum for discussing current developments in the law relating to the Caribbean Community and its Member States. Issues to be covered by the presentations are to include:

- The free movement of goods, capital, skilled labour, service providers
- Freedom to start businesses in the Community
- Foreign currency trading
- CSME Issues in national courts
- Compliance by CARICOM with Administrative Law Principles
- Competition among commercial enterprises within the Community
- CCJ Litigation by the Private Sector
- The global financial crisis and regional opportunities

Speakers to include: Prime Minister David Thompson (Barbados); Secretary-General Edwin Carrington (CARICOM); CCJ President Michael de la Bastide (and all Judges of the CCJ); Ambassador Dr. Cuthbert Joseph (Trinidad and Tobago); Sir Shridath Ramphal; the Solicitor General of Jamaica; Professors of Law Anderson, Antoine and Carnegie (UWI) ; the General Counsel of CARISEC; Mr. Ewart Williams (Governor Central Bank, Trinidad); Mr. Patterson Cheltenham QC (Barbados); Dr. Hans Lim A Po (Suriname); Dean Gélín Imanès Collot (Haiti) and Dr. Kusha Haraksingh (Chairman of the Community Competition Commission).

In addition to the high level of the intellectual content of the Symposium, the event offers networking opportunities for Caribbean lawyers, entrepreneurs and public sector employees.

For information on registration please visit: (www.caricomlawsymposium.com) or:

Ms. Betty Goodman
Caribbean Law Institute Centre
Cave Hill Campus, University of the West Indies

Email: clie@cavehill.uwi.edu

Telephone: (246) 417-4561

